President's Column Bruce filling in for Nile

Sly Fox Ski Club board for the 2021-22 season is:

- President ----- Nile Beck
- Vice-President ----- Kelly Kloehn
- Secretary ----- (position still open)
- Treasurer ----- Julie Buechner
- Advisor ----- Bruce Kettner

We are still in need of a volunteer for Secretary. Contact Julie at Membership@slyfoxskiclub.org if interested. Be involved in the planning and decision-making for this years trips.

I would like to thank the previous board consisting of Nile, Lisa, Julie and Nancy for pushing thru this difficult year. Planning the meetings and trips while constantly changing and adapting to protocol recommendations. Thanks to Sam and Deb for keeping in day-to-day contact with our tour guide and ski hills, allowing us to salvage what we could for our trips. Thanks to Sandy putting our newsletters together. Thank you to the members. Thanks for your membership, your participation in voting and helping with logistics while on trips.

I look forward to a new year and possibly getting back to somewhat normalcy. Make sure you keep your membership current as we start this new year. We have Telluride and other great trips to look forward to. Last month, an adventurous group enjoyed spring skiing at Big Sky. See details in this newsletter. The reason this month's newsletter is delayed is due to many of us being in Big Sky.

Well it looks like summer is here. Get outside and enjoy. If you have an idea for a group activity this summer, contact a board member and lets see if we can make it happen.

See you soon

Bruce

BIG SKY MONTANA MARCH 13-20, 2021

Organized by Crystal at Winter Ski & Sport

The “Outlaw” Big Sky Trip is complete! 20 skiers from Sly Fox and Gelandesprung enjoyed a week of skiing in sunshine at this huge Montana resort. Some of us drove, some flew on their own, and some flew on flights provided by WS&S on Saturday March 13. These people had the luck of the Irish as a huge snow storm was coming through Denver where they had to change planes. They got the last flight out of Chicago that was allowed to leave, then the last flight out of Denver to Bozeman that was allowed to depart. Everything afterward was cancelled. It was a bumpy ride, but they made it.

Where was all this snow in Montana? Nothing but bluebird skies there as we skied on Sunday and for the rest of the week. One day it was warm enough that we got a photo of a young lady in the lift line wearing nothing but a thong and a ski parka. Naturally it made it to Facebook with all the “Ooh La La” comments.

18 were in 3 bedroom condos at Big Horn condos. These were just about ski-in-ski-out with their own poma lift across the street to get to the main lift network. Wednesday night was the scene of a spontaneous dance party in one of the condos.

With 20 people, 2 of us had to “take one for the team” and stay in a hotel room slope-side in the luxurious Huntley Lodge. This was also the location of the outdoor pool and hot tubs that the Big Horn folks used. On Thursday night a group dinner was organized in the Huntley at about the only place we could all gather to eat. This was in a meeting room in the Huntley that had been converted to a “take-out and delivery” Thai restaurant. We were allowed to sit together there and they did serve beer and wine.

Speaking of covid restrictions, I was impressed how well Big Sky handled it. Lifties patrolled the lift lines reminding everyone to keep their masks up over their noses. Restaurants had reduced seating capacity and limited hours, which was occasionally annoying, but necessary. There were no live bands, but the sundeck of the Exchange Building was a lively place in the afternoon if you could find seats. All in all, despite missing a few aspects of a ski trip, it really is all about the skiing, which Big Sky has plenty of.

As luck would have it, Friday night brought a dump of snow, so as we were leaving, 8” of new snow covered all the runs. C’est la Vie.
