The 2017-18 ski season is in the books. Earlier we had our spring banquet at The Mariner. I guess if we want snow we have to plan a banquet/Christmas party as this year the weather was difficult for both. But the people that ventured out had a great time. The food was tasty and plenty. Our One Man Band entertainer did a GREAT job. The dance area was full till the end. Mark Nelson and the social committee planned a festive get together. There were door prizes, 50/50 and basket raffles.

I huge THANK YOU to all that donated items for this event: The Bar, Mer & Jackie Supper Club, North-Sider gas station, Dick & Joan's Supper Club, Legacy Supper Club, Krabbe's Supper Club, Fleet Farm, "Y"-Go By Bar, Simple Simon Bakery, Kwik Trip, Milwaukee Burger Company, 10th Frame Bar & Bowling Alley, The Bulk Store, and Jane Kurath. REMEMBER TO THANK these businesses/people when you are out and about or redeeming gifts.

We have a Timber Rattlers game planned for June 29th. Tailgate and fireworks included. See details in this newsletter and get signed up. Interested in other summer events? Get the info to the board so we can spread the word and have more summer outings.

We are currently in the planning stages for next year's trips. May 19th we will be at the CMSC Trip Seminar 2018 in Rosemont IL. We will release the info as soon as possible so you will be able to plan your schedules and vacations. See you at the T-Rat game!

Enjoy the summer!
Bruce

KEYSTONE, COLORADO

WRAP-UP

by Sam Fontaine
(Mostly) Fearless Trip Leader

We are back from Keystone Colorado and 60 Sly Fox and Gelandesprung members had a bang-up time (more ways than one). It was nominally a trip with 3 days of skiing, but at least one person, Senny Wegner (go figure), got in 5 days of skiing. Since we arrived in the early afternoon, we were allowed free night skiing on the front side of Keystone from 4 pm to 8 pm, and many took advantage of that. Also, our departure was scheduled late with the bus loading at 1:15 pm, so if you could find someone with unused days on their lift ticket (many) you could ski that morning. Besides Senny, Dave Leeder and yours truly spent the morning bombing the mountain. Sorry folks, but it was the best skiing of the whole five days.

We had 22 first timers on this trip, including 7 from Chicago. So we got to know a lot of new friends. Everyone skied Keystone on the first day, which was sunny, rather warm. The next day, many of us went to Breckenridge on the free Summit Stage bus. We should have been able to get on the gondola at the bus stop, but although still sunny, the wind was howling and they shut down the gondola. We had to get to the lift on the local shuttle bus. Skied until mid-afternoon, then the clouds started rolling in, signaling snow coming. Some people also went to Arapahoe Basin that day and the wind was blowing them off their skis, literally. Monday was our last official ski day. We had some fresh snow, but still strong winds.

Monday night, we had a pizza dinner at Pizza On the Run in the River Run Village. The Lunar award was “won” by Mike Komoroske, apparently for leading Mike Miller astray several times, although I think Mr Miller should have won for the longest nomination speech.
