The 2024-25 ski season has come to an end. We wrapped up the season with a great trip to Copper Mountain, Colorado, March 30th thru April 3rd. We had a lot of happy skiers participating and they enjoyed fabulous snow during the 4-day week. You can read all about it in the May newsletter.

On March 19, we held our last meeting of the season which featured the election of officers for the 2025-26 season. Greg Buss will remain the President for a second term and Randy Zurbuchen will continue as Vice President. Deb Bramschreiber will also continue as Secretary. That still leaves the open position of Treasurer. Julie Buechner says it is not really that hard to do and she will mentor the new treasurer, helping in any way she can. We need this critical position filled. The position comes with a $300 stipend to be used on Sly Fox trips and events.

Note that there are no meetings in April. On Friday, May 2, we will have our annual banquet at Van Abel's in Hollandtown. It will be the installation of officers, as well as live music, complete with raffle prizes and the whole nine yards.. See the sign-up sheet on page 4 in this newsletter. I hope to see you all there.

Looking forward to next year, we are in the planning stages for the 2025/2026 ski season. Remember that your ideas are always welcome as this is your club and we are here to try to accommodate as many of your wishes as possible. Stay tuned for details.

See you at the banquet!

Greg Buss
